FREE Estate Planning Seminar

Wills, Trusts, and VA/Medicaid Qualifications for Long-term Care

Everyone needs an Estate Plan. It's vital for any individual, couple, or family who owns a home and has assets. It's time to make sure your Estate Planning is in good order. You will learn how comprehensive Estate Planning can be used to maximize your retirement accounts, provide care for yourself, and preserve your legacy for your family.

This seminar will provide you with facts that are straightforward and easy to understand.

- Average Annual Nursing Home Care Exceeds $85K.
Learn about Medicaid and VA eligibility to pay for those expenses.
- Wills vs. Trusts
Learn the difference between a will and a trust, and which one prevents probate.
- Joint Tenancy
Learn why using joint tenancy or transferring your assets before you pass away is an inadequate estate plan.
- Learn How to Protect Your Children's Inheritance
From lawsuits or should they divorce. What if your surviving spouse remarries?
- Disability: End-of-Life Decisions
Learn how to prepare for disability as well as end-of-life decisions.

Certified Estate and Trust Specialist

At Kinghorn Heritage Law Group, PLC, our mission is to empower families and individuals to make important decisions and take action to ensure their loved ones are protected when death or incapacity strike. Estate planning and elder law attorneys, Kevin Kinghorn and Allison Manning, have earned an outstanding reputation among clients and peers in helping families in Southern Arizona. As a full-service estate planning and elder law firm, we not only help our clients plan for death and incapacity, we also help our clients and their families administer their estate plans. We are recognized as leaders and innovators in helping our clients qualify for Medicaid or Veterans Affairs benefits, protecting assets from creditors and predators, and guiding new and seasoned business owners in business planning, creation, and succession.
